

Seven new candidates admitted

FIFA Players Agent

Free Midi

Posted in Le Midi Libre le 08 - 10 - 2007

Seven (7) candidates have successfully passed the FIFA players' agent exam, held on September 27 at the headquarters of the Algerian Football Federation (FAF), the Algerian football higher body said on its official website on Sunday. .

The seven candidates admitted are MM. Mohamed Haram, Lakhdar Boussakra, Abdelghani Adjal, Hamza Benmessaoud, Rafik Temimi, Abdelhamid Behloul and Abderrahmane Zitouni. They passed the tests on questions relating to international and national regulations.

The examination of players' agents-FIFA, it is recalled, will take place in accordance with the provisions laid down by the International Football Federation (Fifa).

The FIFA Statutes 2004, the Regulations for the Application of the FIFA Statutes, the Regulations for the Status of Players and the Transfer of Players, 2005 edition, including their annexes, will be among the subjects of the examination.

Once the written exam has been passed, the candidate (s) must meet the condition relating to the financial guarantee (deposit of 100,000 Swiss francs) deposited with FIFA, or take out an international insurance policy covering the activities of agents. of players. With the success of these new candidates, the number of FIFA players' agents approved by the Algerian Football Federation (FAF) is around twenty.

Seven (7) candidates have successfully passed the FIFA players' agent exam, held on September 27 at the headquarters of the Algerian Football Federation (FAF), the Algerian football higher body said on its official website on Sunday. .

The seven candidates admitted are MM. Mohamed Haram, Lakhdar Boussakra, Abdelghani Adjal, Hamza Benmessaoud, Rafik Temimi, Abdelhamid Behloul and Abderrahmane Zitouni. They passed the tests on questions relating to international and national regulations.

The examination of players' agents-FIFA, it is recalled, will take place in accordance with the provisions laid down by the International Football Federation (Fifa).

The FIFA Statutes 2004, the Regulations for the Application of the FIFA Statutes, the Regulations for the Status of Players and the Transfer of Players, 2005 edition, including their annexes, will be among the subjects of the examination.

Once the written exam has been passed, the candidate (s) must meet the condition relating to the financial guarantee (deposit of 100,000 Swiss francs) deposited with FIFA, or take out an international insurance policy covering the activities of agents. of players. With the success of these new candidates, the number of FIFA players' agents approved by the Algerian Football Federation (FAF) is around twenty.

Click here to read the article from its source.

Ad closed by Google

Read also

Exam next September 29 PLAYER AGENTS

FIFA Players Agent Exam

[Exam on September 30
Players' agents](#)

FIFA players' agent exam on September 30 in Algiers

Ad closed by Google

0 commentaires

Trier par

Les plus anciens

Ajouter un commentaire...

plugin Commentaires Facebook

Ad closed by Google